

We provide Contract and Resource Management Services to our clients during any phase or all phases of the development life cycle. Our consultants are geographically mobile and are willing to work on consulting assignments anywhere in the United States. This gives us an opportunity to provide our clients with software resources in any region within United States.

We provide the following services to our Clients:

- Software Consulting
- Contract Programming
- Project Staffing
- Resource Planning
- On-site & Off-site Project Development
- Software Support Services
- Software Customization, Implementation and QA services

We provide technical and functional consultants with a diversity of IT experience unsurpassed in the industry. All of our consultants are technically savvy in the required fields and have software development experience ranging from 3 to 15 years. Our resource pool consists of the following software consultants:

- Software Engineers
- Software Developers
- System Architects
- System Analysts
- Programmers
- Project Managers
- Technical Lead
- Testing / QA Specialists
- Network Administrators
- Database Administrators
- Web Developers
- Web Engineers